

Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation

Public Private Improvement Campaign

The NYS Office of Parks, Recreation, and Historic Preservation have committed to rehabilitate and expand the Minna Anthony Common Nature Center structure. Upon its completion, the Friends of the Nature Center will create new educational displays and make upgrades to the interior of the building.

Fun, interactive displays, and new exhibits will teach, provide entertainment, and offer a link between the Nature Center and it's trails. The Minna Anthony Common Nature Center needs your support!

I/We are interested in a naming opportunity:

- _____ Brick (minimum $150)
- _____ Outdoor Bench (minimum $1000)
- _____ Wall Leaf (minimum $500)
- _____ Anonymous Donation

See attached form for Brick, Bench and Leaf Description/Inscription Guidelines
* Items are susceptible to wear and tear. Normal maintenance will be provided to upkeep benches. The NYS Parks withholds the right to remove named items if it deems it necessary in the future.
 The Friends and the NYS Parks must approve naming plaque verbiage prior to placement of order.
